Projects & Achievements

Gamebalaya Podcast

August 2012 - Ongoing

- A personal project in association with Lydia Sung to provide a semi-regular, bi-weekly podcast covering gaming and geek culture. The podcast was integrated with bamdot.com in August 2013.

Event Coverage for Neoseeker.com

June 2011 - June 2013

- Covered major events, including E3 2011-2013, E3 Judges Events, GDC 2012 and Call of Duty XP.
- Worked with editorial staff at various press events to provide video coverage and notes.
- Conducted solo coverage at GDC 2012 shooting interviews and taking notes for editorial staff.
- Shot and edited multiple video interviews each day with editorial staff under a heavy schedule and kept deadlines.

Workflow Improvements for Real Time Ordering

December 2012 - April 2013

- Integrated Basecamp into everyday workflow to improve efficiency of associates and tracking of clientele's projects.
- Incorporated Insightly CRM to improve customer service quality and associate's awareness of clients.
- Worked with development staff to build improvements for the retail CMS. Provided input on new CMS backend and worked closely with development staff to improve efficiency of repetitive tasks and usability of old CMS.

Jet's Pizza Transition to Real Time Ordering Service

November 2012 - April 2013

- Real Time Ordering acquired a 200 unit online ordering contract during the summer of 2012. Working with the development team and company associates, pushed through a new online storefront and provided online ordering integration into their existing POS systems.
- Setup transition procedure for associates and handled corporate and franchisee relations as locations were switched to our service.
